JUDGE SENDS 3 YOUTHS TO WHITE HILL

Three area youths were sentenced to indeterminate terms in School at White Hill Thursday afternoon by the Adams County court.

Judge W. C. Sheely, in passing the sentence on Ray Alvin Bowman, 18, Littlestown R. 2; Benson P. Smith, 16, 504 Diller Rd., Hanover, and Burnell L. Weaver, 17, Littlestown R. 2, told the youths that "at White Hill you will have an opportunity to better yourselves. The way you were going you were bound to wind up in only one place — the penitentiary."

State Policeman Robert Brady told the court that the three young men on the night of October 15-16, riding in a car registered in Bowman's name and owned by all three, drove to the Hostetter farm near Brush-town and stole 20 gallons of gasoline; then went to the Drive-In Distributing Co., near Gettysburg, broke in and took four cases of beer and damaged other property while there; then they went to the S. R. Baumgardner service station, Seven Stars, where they obtained eight cartons of cigarettes and $5.75 in change.

Recover Some Loot
The next stop was at the Floyd Miller service station in Gettysburg where $10 to $12 in change was secured plus a man's purse. At the Two Mile Inn, near Littlestown, ten bottles of whiskey, some food, some partly empty, were removed from the bar. At Palmer Beer distributors, between Littlestown and Hanover, $46.10 in cash was stolen plus a box of fishing tackle valued at $60. The youths opened the box, found it contained no money and threw it on the highway, where the fishing equipment was ruined. Officer Brady said six of the cartons of cigarettes and $23.99 in change and bills was recovered from the youths. He was directed by the court to divide the money.

FIRE DAMAGES FARM HOME

The two and one-half story frame farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Keller, R. 2, was badly damaged by fire shortly before noon today. Firemen from Gettysburg and Fairfield responded to the alarm. The loss was not estimated.

Mrs. Keller was in the basement of the house, she said, when she heard a strange noise "like a dog scratching" on the porch. On going upstairs to the kitchen she saw flames on an outside porch.

R. Thomas Adams, Gettysburg fireman, broke his left ankle at the blaze. He had started for gas masks for the firemen and when he stepped off the porch of the Keller home he fractured the ankle.

Assistant Fire Chief Francis L. Linn was nearly overcome by smoke. He was assisted from the burning home and quickly recovered.

Origin Is Unknown

The origin of the blaze was not determined. Mrs. Keller first called her husband who was at the home of a son, Carl, about a mile and a quarter away. She then called firemen.

When the firemen from the two communities arrived, at about the same time, the house, particularly the second floor, was filled.

ROUND TABLE HEARS ABOUT "JEB STUART"

Just where was Jeb Stuart when his troops fought the Union Calvary in the area known as East Cavalry field was the question William G. Shoemaker, local pharmacist and Civil War scholar, asked the Gettysburg Civil War Round Table at its meeting Thursday evening at the GAR rooms, E. Middle St.

Shoemaker said that it will take five more years to complete his research into the cavalry movements that culminated when the Confederate and Union horsemen clashed east of here on July 3, 1863, just as Pickett's infantry charge was about to burst against the Union Center.

Shoemaker outlined to the Round Table, using maps, details of Stuart's activities immediately preceding and following the battle of Brandy's Station on June 9, 1863, when the Union Cavalry for the first time proved their worth against Stuart's horsemen.

The local druggist quoted a letter from a Confederate general claiming that much of the success of the Union forces at Gettysburg was "due to the Federal cavalry."

John K. Weitzel, William G. Weaver, J. M. Sheads and Gilbert Eiker were appointed as a committee to contact the National Civil War Centennial Committee to arrange for a "Centennial Night" meeting early next year. George Olinger, J. M. Sheads and G. Henry Roth were appointed as a clipping committee to clip articles of interest concerning the Civil War and the anniversary program.

SUDDEN END FOR OCTOBER COURT TODAY

The last trial in the October term of Adams County court came to a sudden end this morning, when the parties involved reached a settlement.

Trial of the action in assumption brought by C. Russell Rohrbach, Gettysburg R. 2, against Hayward W. and D. Kenneth McCleaf, Gettysburg R. 1, began Thursday afternoon. This morning Hayward McCleaf, who had been testifying when court closed Thursday evening, resumed his testimony.

Attorneys involved asked a bar conference and then Judge W. C. Sheely recessed the case temporarily. At the conclusion of the recess the jury was told that the case was being withdrawn, a mistrial was declared and the case was continued for settlement. Terms of the settlement were not disclosed.

Get Damage Verdict

The case involved the alleged sale of nine heifers. Rohrbach claimed that he had met Hayward McCleaf at a sale and arranged with him for the purchase of two heifers and made a $10 down payment. Later discussion was held concerning the seven other heifers, how much they would be, the possibility of the McCleafs' taking a sow and two pigs as part of the payment, and eventually when Rohrbach went to claim his heifers he found they had been sold to someone else.

Hayward McCleaf said he had talked about sale of two of the nine heifers and had accepted a $10 down payment when Rohrbach forced it upon him, but said he understood and believed Rohrbach understood that the deal was dependent upon agreement of Kenneth McCleaf, with whom Hayward is in partnership. In another civil suit heard on Thursday a verdict in the amount of $1,209.65 was awarded William L. Naylor, Carlisle R. 5, against Leroy Moten, Winter Garden, Fla. The amount was for damages to

Next week the youngsters of Adams County, especially those of the Fifth and Sixth grade age group, will celebrate Halloween, take part in school parades, attend parties and join in other festivities to commemorate the annual goblin event.

One of the activities the youngsters enjoy is the "trick or treat" visits they make to the neighborhood homes.

Wearing ghostly costumes in the main, with masks or chalked and burned - corked faces, the youngsters will trundle up your front porch steps, ring the bell and "demand" in "daring" tones . . . "Trick Or Treat." That means you must give them a treat or they will play a trick on you.

It's all in fun and practically everybody (there are a few exceptions, of course) will go along with the prank and hand over a treat of some kind.

However, during recent years "trick and treat" has developed into a wonderful gesture of fun and service for children throughout the world.

A great many of the youngsters

WGCT Off Air For 102 Minutes Today

When the replaced tube did not put the station on the air, other members of the engineering staff were called in and at 8:37 a.m. the station resumed operations. One small connection was discovered as the cause of failure. Programming for the most part was presented in normal fashion thereafter, with local news and other features usually heard around 8 o'clock presented instead one hour later.

Mr. And Mrs. O. C. Cluck, Near Littlestown, Killed When Truck Crashes Auto

An elderly Littlestown R. 2 couple was fatally injured Thursday afternoon at 4:45 o'clock when their car was struck by a tractor-trailer four miles east of here at the intersection of the Hunterstown-Bonneauville Rd. and the Lincoln Highway.

Mrs. Grace E. Cluck, 68, was killed instantly. Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, said her death was caused by a broken neck, crushed chest and compound fracture of the skull and a broken back.

Her husband, Oliver C. Cluck, 77, died an hour after he had been removed to the Warner Hospital in the Gettysburg Fire Department ambulance. Dr. Crist said his death was caused by a crushed chest and compound fracture of the skull.

Crossing Highway

State police said Mr. and Mrs. Cluck were driving south in their 1949 Buick sedan on the Hunterstown-Bonneauville Rd.

The car entered the Lincoln Highway apparently planning to cross Route 30 and continue on towards Bonneauville.

At that moment an eastbound tractor trailer operated by William H. Long, 26, Terre Hill, Lancaster County, was in the middle lane of the Lincoln Highway, in the act of passing an eastbound auto which had slowed and was turning south into the road toward Bonneauville.

The tractor-trailer crashed into the right side of the Cluck car, crushing in the right side where Mrs. Cluck was seated. The car and truck then continued on 30 feet and came to rest in the parking lot at the Armistead 5 and 10 cent store on the southeast side of the intersection. The two vehicles hit an electric light standard, causing $75 damage to it.

State police said the Cluck car was demolished. Damage to the tractor-trailer was estimated at $500. The driver of the truck escaped injury.

Mr. Cluck was the son of the late Emanuel and Martha Bie-secker Cluck. Mrs. Cluck was the daughter of the late Harry and Ella Adams Shemberger.

TANEYTOWN — Group two of the Maryland Bankers Associa-tion met Wednesday at Western Maryland College, Westminster. Dr. Lowell E. Ensor, president of the college, spoke to the group on the future of higher education in the U. S.

Attending from the Taneytown area were Norman Hess, Norville Shoemaker, Norman Sauble, Har-ry Dougherty, Charles Cluts, Clyde L. Hesson, Marlin L. Rittase, Nor-man Baumgardner, Charles Stone-sifer, Elwood Baumgardner and E. E. Stuller, of the First Na-tional Bank, and Merwyn Fuss, Charles Arnold and Murray Baum-gardner, of the Birnie Trust Co.

The Taneytown Girls' 4-H Club met recently at the home of Faye Martin with 15 members and one mother, Mrs. Oscar Wolfe, pres-ent.

A demonstration on how to make a pointed collar was given by Faye Martin and Betty Stone-sifer.

The leader, Mrs. Kathryn Stone-sifer, gave a demonstration on making vegetable and fruit salads. Plans were discussed for future meetings. Refreshments were served.

Allen Baumgardner and Sandra Shorb represented Taneytown High School in the state chorus which sang at one of the general meetings of the Maryland State Teachers Association recently.

The window decorating contest which will be held in connection with the indoor carnival is open to students and organizations with-in the school. Store windows of Taneytown will be decorated by those who submit the best sketches.

It was announced at the recent PTA meeting that the school will not sponsor another magazine campaign but that it would be necessary for patrons of the school to see that more public funds are provided by the Carroll County Board of Education. That board acted recently to allocate funds for purchases by school libraries and for physical education, with a view to eliminating fund raising projects in the schools.

John Shorb played a clarinet solo at the PTA meeting. He was accompanied by his sister, Sandra Shorb. The Ninth grade chorus sang "Cindy," "Hei-de-li-dom" and "Go Down Moses."

PITTSBURGH HOTEL STRIKE IS SETTLED

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Five ma-jor Pittsburgh hotels began calling back workers Thursday after a 22-day strike that ended Wednes-day night with some 2,300 employees voting by nearly 2 to 1 end the walkout.

Pickets were removed from the Penn-Sheraton, Pittsburgh, Web-ster Hall, Sherwyn and Roosevelt hotels.

Management began accepting guest reservations immediately and announced that food and bever-age service would be resumed today. The hotels expect to be in full operation within the next few days.

Three-Year Pact

The new three-year agreement provides a 16-cent hourly package wage increase for non-tipped em-ployees.

For tipped workers, the pact calls for a gradual reduction from the present 48 and 44 hour work-week to 40 hours without loss of pay.

Wage scales under the old con-tract were not disclosed.

The walkout began Oct. 1 and cost the city an estimated million dollars in revenue from the loss of at least 10 conventions and other trade. The last major Pittsburgh hotel strike occurred in 1946 and lasted 53 days.

Mayor Is Pleased

When informed that the strike was over, Mayor David L. Law-rence of Pittsburgh, Democratic candidate for governor of Pennsyl-vania, issued this statement from Bedford, Pa., where he was cam-paigning:

"Like all Pittsburghers I am de-lighted that the hotel strike is over. Now we can get back to nor-mal as one of America's great convention cities."

Lawrence tried several times to get both sides to agree on a new contract and on one occasion in-terrupted his campaign in the ear-ly stages of the walkout.

Six delegates to the American Society of Anesthesiologists con-vention arrived here today only to find that the convention had been cancelled several days ago be-cause of the strike.

One of the delegates came all the way from Hong Kong. The oth-ers were on vacations throughout the country and could not be reached in time.

HOLD RALLY DAY SUNDAY

The Brethren in Christ Sunday School at Iron Springs is promot-ing an enlargement campaign during October. The Sunday School is divided into two teams, the green and the yellow, and is working on a point basis to bring new pupils into the Sunday School. At the close of last Sun-day morning's service, the yellow team was leading with a total of 6,210 points. The green team has 5,660. There has been an average increase of 25 per cent over the average attendance for the corresponding three Sundays in 1956 and 1957.

Each Sunday has had a special emphasis. The first Sunday was "Every Member Present Sunday." The aim was to have 100 per cent attendance for the regularly en-rolled scholars. October 12 was "Children's Day." Mrs. Ray Bru-baker, Zullinger, Pa., presented "Gospel Magic" to the children. The third Sunday was "Parents' Sunday," and every child having either father or mother or both parents present was given a gift.

Sunday will be Rally Day. Rev. Avery Musser, Grantham, Pa., will be the speaker. Music will be presented by the young people of the church.

Sunday, a one-week evangelis-tic campaign will open with Rev. Charles Rife, Fayetteville, Pa., serving as the evangelist. The Sunday evening services will be-gin at 7 o'clock, and the weekday services will begin at 7:30 p. m.

RUSSIAN POET IS GIVEN PRIZE IN LITERATURE

STOCKHOLM (AP)—Boris Pas-ternak, the Russian poet and au-thor of the anti-Communist novel "Doctor Zhivago," Thursday was awarded the 1958 Nobel Prize in Literature.

The award was the most drama-tic in years. The 66-year-old author still lives just outside Mos-cow. The Soviet government has not permitted publication in Rus-sia of his monumental novel about what communism has done to freedom and tried to prevent its publication abroad.

The award, worth $41,420, was certain to be interpreted by many as a slap in the face for the So-viet government. There was specu-lation that the Soviet authorities would not allow Pasternak to re-ceive his prize, or would take re-prisals against him.

Best Red Poet

Known as the greatest living poet writing in the Russian lan-guage, Pasternak despaired of publishing creative writing of his own under Stalin and for years devoted himself to translations of such foreign classics as Goethe and Shakespeare.

"Doctor Zhivago"—upon which he had been working quietly for 10 years—was completed in 1956 during the de-Stalinization period of comparative freedom for writ-ers. But to make certain it was published, he sent it abroad by a friend.

The monumental novel first ap-peared in Italy in Italian last year and was published in the United States last month.

The 700-page book has for its hero Yuri Andreyevich Zhivago, a wealthy doctor and writer who tells, through literary bits he left behind, of the tragedy of Russia in this century.

It obviously expresses Pasternak's reaction to the Russian Revolution.

Critics have hailed its sweeping breadth and placed it in the tradi-tion of Tolstoy's "War and Peace."

The award was made by the 18 members of the Royal Swedish Academy of Letters from funds provided in the will of the late Alfred Nobel, inventor of dynamite. The citation said it was given for Pasternak's "important achieve-ment both in contemporary lyrical poetry and in the field of the great Russian epic tradition."

In an obvious attempt to fore-stall Soviet criticism, Dr. Anders Osterling, permanent secretary of the Swedish Academy, said the author's writing is "high above all political party frontiers." Other members of the academy said they viewed "Doctor Zhivago" as one of the great philosophical novels of our time.

Aged Couple Dies Within 10 Minutes

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) —Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jacobs were giving a dinner party for their daughter and son-in-law.

During the meal, Jacobs suf-fered a heart attack and died.

"I want to go too. I can't live without him," his wife sobbed as her daughter tried to comfort her. Then Mrs. Jacobs collapsed and within minutes she was dead.

The couple, both 70, had been married 47 years.

Lion Shot When He Breaks Lady's Arm

POMONA, Calif. (AP) — An African lion broke and gashed a woman's arm when she reached into its cage to pet it.

The beast was shot to death Thursday by its owner when blows with a two-by-four failed to make it release Mrs. Mary Somerville's arm.

Mrs. Somerville and friends had gone to the home of Jack Wilder to see his lion. Wilder is starting a zoo for children in nearby Chino.

He's Bragging Of Smallest Tarpon

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Most fishermen brag about the big fish they catch.

But Hal Roche believes he caught the world's smallest tarpon. The fish was 4 1/4 inches long and weighed three ounces.

Local sportsmen said they could not remember a tarpon that small being caught on a line before.

Most are measured in feet.

Roche said he was going to have the fish mounted.

Push Plans For Conclave To Elect Catholic Pope

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Preparations were nearly completed today for the conclave that will elect a new Pope of the Roman Catholic Church.

Scores of carpenters and masons put final touches to temporary walls and enclosures that will shut off the electing cardinals from the outside world beginning Saturday.

In a corner of the famous Sistine Chapel, where the cardinals will vote, a shiny, pot-bellied stove was ready to burn their ballots. In St. Peter's Square workmen cleaned the famous Bernini fountains and prepared the area for the throng that will gather there while the voting is in progress.

The cardinals who gathered for the conclave held a final congregation to make their last arrangements.

Saturday morning they will gather in St. Peter's Basilica for a "Mass of the Holy Spirit," a service specially intended to beseech divine guidance during the conclave.

Fifty-two of the 54 living cardinals are in Rome and expected to attend the conclave. There was still a slight hope that last-minute arrangements could be made to bring Josef Cardinal Mindszenty of Hungary here for the conclave.

The U.S. Legation in Budapest, where the cardinal has been a political refugee since November, 1956, was unable to obtain a safe-conduct for the cardinal from Communist authorities.

Nonetheless, just in case, a throne for Cardinal Mindszenty has been placed in the Sistine Chapel. There are 53 such thrones, each topped by a canopy.

The only other member of the College of Cardinals who will not attend is Alojzije Cardinal Stepinac, Primate of Yugoslavia. He is sick and confined by Communist authorities to his native village of Krasic.

Weather Forecast

Extended forecast for Saturday, Oct. 25, through Wednesday, Oct. 29:

Eastern Pennsylvania, eastern New York and Midatlantic States, Western Pennsylvania, western New York and West Virginia: Temperature will probably average 4 degrees above normal, cooler over the weekend, warmer again next week. Little or no rain expected in the south and scattered showers across the north on Saturday and Tuesday may total a few tenths of an inch.

The parade will move from the high school to Lincolnway East, thence over Lincolnway West to Kohler Mill Rd., to West High St., to Hanover St., through the square to Carlisle St. to Golden Lane, thence to the fire house. Prizes will be awarded for best floats and costumes.

STOCKS MIXED

NEW YORK (AP) — Stocks shrugged off initial easiness and moved higher early this afternoon. There still were a number of losers.

A majority of key issues gained fractions to about a point but in a few instances gains extended beyond that. Steels, rails and aircrafts were among the better acting groups.

sters will start the "trick or treat" before the day of Halloween... they want to get in their fun and help to do something for tens of thousands of unknown but deserving children in scores of free countries around the world, before the real "spook day."

When these youngsters come to your door they will very likely be wearing the conventional Halloween costume. Their faces will be masked or chalked or cork-burned to disguise themselves, and they will ask for a "trick or treat." However, they will not want a "treat" in the same sense as in previous years. They will appreciate a little cash donation.

These youngsters will wear a badge identifying them as being associated with UNICEF, (United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund) — this organization has solicited the assistance of these youngsters to raise funds to buy essentials for more than 600 million children in faraway lands who are hungry, ill, have insufficient clothes and will perish if we fail to help them.

So instead of a "treat" of candy, fruit or some other sweet, give them a "treat" of cash... any amount you can spare.

Each youngster, who is identified with UNICEF will have a special UNICEF container into which you are to put your donation. Whatever you give will make our own youngsters happy because they are trying to help some deserving but helpless youngster in a foreign land.

Please give as much as you can... but please give SOMETHING.

Mrs. Donald E. Horst, Biglerville, is county chairman of the "Trick or Treat" campaign.

To attract public attention to the UNICEF campaign a pumpkin display will be placed in the lobby of the Hotel Gettysburg and in the window of the Bookmart. There is also a display in a store window on S. Main St., Biglerville.

The worst mine accident in this town of 7,000 near the New Brunswick border was an explosion in 1891 that killed 125. Canada's worst mine disaster was at Hillcrest, Alta., in 1941, when 193 were killed.

The bump occurred at 8:05 p.m. Dishes tumbled from shelves in Springfield and houses also shook 14 miles away in Maccan. Veteran miners called it the worst in memory. Six smaller bumps between last March and Sept. 1 injured 14 men. The cause of bumps often is undetermined.

The mine slopes to a depth of 4,400 feet underground in a length of 14,300 feet, sometimes descending as steeply as 45 degrees. The company considers it North America's deepest coal pit.

The son of one trapped miner, Gary Embree, said he hoped that "after this they close the mine for good—even if it means the end of Springfield."

Mayor Ralph Gilroy agreed this might be the end. The No. 2 colliery was the only mine left open. A reporter from Halifax was killed when his car crashed at Truro as he hurried to Springfield. He was John Thompson, 28.

The first of the 88 miners to reach safety in 1956, Charlie Burton, was among the missing today. Frank Hunter, another of the 88, also was trapped and so was his twin brother Fred, but another brother, Percy, got out unhurt.

On another occasion, he said, he spent a year on a North Carolina road gang for an offense in that state.

Ronald A. Phillips, Littlestown R. 2, found guilty of one morals charge and innocent of another by a jury Thursday afternoon, was sentenced immediately to 60 days in jail and ordered to pay a fine of $50 and the costs. The jury hearing the case against him brought in its verdict at 5:10 o'clock Thursday afternoon, five hours and four minutes after it had begun its deliberations.

Charles S. Steward, 24, of California and Arensville, charged with attempted theft of a car from the Swope Atlantic station and with theft of a transistor radio, was told his sentence will be handed down Tuesday after officers said they believe he may be implicated in other cases.

JAMES M. QUIGLEY

For Congress

of the 19th District

And we would spotlight the action of the five central Pennsylvania congressmen, who represent the 19 counties ringing Harrisburg, when the House passed upon the Education Bill.

There were two roll calls of record before the final House approval by voice vote. The first of these came on whether the House would or would not consider the National Scholarship and Loan program. It passed 265 to 108, but only one of our area's five congressmen, all Republicans, voted for it. He is Representative Ivor D. Fenton of Mahanoy City (12th District). Voting negatively were Representatives S. WALTER STAUFFER OF YORK (19TH), Walter M. Mumma of Harrisburg (16th), Paul B. Dague of Downingtown (9th) and Richard M. Simpson of Huntingdon (18th).

The critical roll call came on a motion to recommit, or kill, the Legislation. There was the same lineup by the five central Pennsylvanians.

Let them explain their stand to their constituents who will be passing judgment on their records this November.

Civilians May Buy Turkeys;
8,500 On 7 Farms In County;
Ceiling Price Fixed By OPA:
The War Food Administration has released turkeys for sale for today. It was estimated by the WFA that approximately 45,000-50,000 pounds of turkeys are available for civilian use with 35,000-40,000 pounds assigned to the Armed Forces.

The freeing of turkeys for civilian consumption became effective last August 12th and turkey raisers were prohibited from selling their gobblers and hens to any one other than the Army.

With the release of turkeys for civilian consumption, the Gettysburg Times made a survey this morning of seven large raisers in the county and learned that approximately 8,500 turkeys are available here.

State-Federal Milk Price Row

Affects 1,500: The Adams county Agricultural Conservation Office announced this week that an estimated 1,500 producers of milk in Adams county will be eligible for federal payments of 40 cents per hundredweight for milk produced in October, November and December.

The announcement said the payments are to be made "to offset the increase in feed costs and hold down the price of milk to the consumer."

The State Milk Control Commission Friday issued an order increasing retail milk prices, thus floating federal price ceiling regulations. The matter is of considerable interest in this county where an estimated 12,000 cattle are producing milk and butter amounting to about 6,000,000 gallons annually.

"Minutemen" Presented With Stand Of Colors, Purse; War Bond Parade: Adams county expressed its appreciation of the State Guard unit, known as the "Minutemen," when a stand of colors, American and Pennsylvania flags, were presented to the organization at impressive ceremonies in center square Thursday evening.

In addition to the stand of colors, made possible through donations from Adams countians, the unit was presented with a purse with which to purchase additional equipment and supplies.

The exercises followed a parade of several units to commemorate the "Over the Top" success of the Third War Bond Drive.

Following the parade the 56th College Training Detachment of the Army Air Corps at Gettysburg college entered the square from York street, circled the

Today's Talk

WRITE IT DOWN

One of the finest little friends I know of is that one in the form of a notebook. You can never tell when this little friend is apt to save you much in time as well as money by the notes that you gather from day to day. The notebook allows you to keep on your work after jotting down a brief notation in it. It helps you to not forget! And it is a constant reminder covering a number of things. It keeps that memory of yours alert, as well.

Get the habit. Write it down. Keeping a notebook handy will save many a worry and stimulate many a thought. How many times your companion at luncheon gives you an idea or suggestion that might not keep with no notebook near at hand. A notebook stimulates the mind and keeps refreshing it.

There is a book I discovered many years ago called "Samuel Butler's Notebook." It is alive with ideas and references that not only may come in handy, but give you many a pleasure you otherwise might not have. The book is full of suggestions and mental stimulants. Scott Fitzgerald got his notebook idea from that of Butler's. Anthologies are really books that introduce you to the best of a writer. I never start reading a book without having a notebook and pencil near at hand. If we take a notebook with us when traveling we can make our trip richer in notes that later will be welcome reading! Why not write it down? You will be glad.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Work—the Remedy"

Just Folks

KNOW THIS FISHERMAN?

I fished the streams at morn and night,
I've left my bed at 4 a.m.
To go where pickeral would bite;
Much trouble I have made for them.

Behind the boathouse I have stood
And currycombed the fishes scales;
I think the trip has done me good,
But I will tell no fairy tales.

Mosquito Hut we called our lodge,
All night a busy man was I,
Mosquitoes I would try to dodge,
Or slaughter them upon the fly.

Oh, they were big and sharp and strong,
Their vicious bills as keen as nails;
They murdered sleep the whole night long,
But I will tell no fairy tales.

Oh, great the havoc that I wrought
With pickeral and bass and pike;
And many shaded nooks I sought
Where always I could get a strike.

But it is over now, and so
I will not sing of sharks and whales;
My fish were just as big, I know,
But I will tell no fairy tales.

PIRATE PILOT

IS MANAGER OF YEAR IN NL

By ARNOLD ZEITLIN
CHESTER, Pa. (AP) — In the midst of congratulations over his selection as The Associated Press Manager of the Year, Danny Murtaugh remembered another Pittsburgh manager today.

"Bill Meyer helped me an awful lot," the sharp-featured, 41-year-old Pirates manager said at his home here. "Toward the end of my career, I got to thinking about wanting to be a manager. Billy would let me sit next to him on the bench. He gave me all sorts of advice, told me why he did things."

"Bill was a good baseball man."

Named Thursday

Murtaugh, former second baseman, who never played for a major league team that finished higher than fourth place, was named Manager of the Year Thursday for his feat of leading the unheralded Pirates into second place in 1958.

The 84-70 finish, eight games behind the pennant-winning Milwaukee Braves, was the Pirates' best since 1944. They finished in a tie for last place in 1957. It was Murtaugh's first full season as manager. He succeeded Bobby Bragan Aug. 3, 1957.

The stocky, 5-foot-9 manager played for the late Meyer in 1948, when the Pirates finished fourth and Meyer was acclaimed Manager of the Year. It was the only time in seven full seasons with the Philadelphia Phillies and the Pirates that Danny played on a first-division club. He played briefly for the Boston Braves in 1946.

Started With New Orleans

Murtaugh started his managing career with New Orleans of the Southern Assn. in 1952.

He received 149 votes in The Associated Press poll of sports writers and sports broadcasters. He became the first manager to be chosen in competition with managers of both leagues. Previously, the Associated Press poll selected one manager in each league.

Bill Rigney, of the third-place San Francisco Giants, was second to Murtaugh with six votes. Fred Haney of Milwaukee and Casey Stengel of the championship New York Yankees each collected five first-place nominations; Lopez received four, Jimmy Dykes, who finished the season at Cincinnati, Harry Craft at Kansas City and Joe Gordon, who completed the year at Cleveland, one each.

BALTIMORE (AP) — Two National Football League teams which have put as much emphasis on running as passing, the Washington Redskins and Baltimore Colts, will put it on the line against each other Sunday.

Neither has given up the quick-hitting home run pass plays which have been the trademark of professional football. But both have shown a lot more balanced attack and success.

Their last Sunday's games were good examples.

The Redskins, led chiefly by fullback Johnny Olszewski, gained 292 yards rushing and 154 passing in beating Green Bay 37-21.

The Colts ground out 316 the hard way and 219 in the air in their 40-14 victory over Detroit.

It was the third time in four games won by the unbeaten Colts that they gained more on the ground than in the air.

40 Out Of 118

This doesn't mean that quarterbacks John Unitas of the Colts and Eddie Lebaron of the Redskins have become mere hand-off men. They're still passing and hitting.

Unitas has completed 60 out of 118 for eight touchdowns. Lebaron has thrown only 53 times and connected on 30. Four went for touchdowns.

Their running games, however,

Ask Widening Of 8' Pike Tunnels

GRID CROWDS ON INCREASE THIS SEASON

HARRISBURG (AP)—The federal government has been asked to consider widening the eight tunnels on the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

Joseph J. Lawler, vice chairman of the Turnpike Commission, made the request Thursday at a meeting with J.L. Stinson, division engineer for the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads.

Lawler asked that the federal government consider widening the tunnels which are on the 359 miles of the super

Huge Crowd Expected To Watch Bullet-Mule Game Here Saturday At 1:30

Several weeks ago it was almost foregone conclusion that the Gettysburg College football team would chalk up a victory when the Bullets oppose Muhlenberg here Saturday afternoon at 1:30 in the annual Homecoming Weekend attraction.

That conclusion has been totally erased in view of the continuing plague of injuries that has continued its grip on the squad which finds the Bullets in perhaps their poorest physical condition this season.

In anticipation of one of the hardest-fought scraps of the campaign, an over-flow crowd will be on hand when the Bullets attempt to remain in the undefeated class at the expense of the Mules, who claim they have their best team in recent history and fully expect to turn back Coach Eugene Haas' outfit.

Extra bleachers will be erected at the east end of the field to accommodate the large crowd, Henry T. Bream, athletic director, announced today.

Have Seventeen Lettermen

Muhlenberg is loaded with plenty of experienced squad members, 17 lettermen remaining from last year. The line will hold a distinct weight advantage over the Bullet forward wall and in Herb Owens and Ed Yost, the Mules have two fine ball-carriers. Owens, a 185-pound junior, is the speedster on the squad while Yost, 195-pound sophomore, is being touted as one of Muhlenberg's finest fullback prospects.

The Mules have logged a 2-1 record. They lost to powerful Lafayette 27-14 and then rolled to victories over Temple 21-18 and Lebanon Valley 42-12.

Bullet Line Scrambled

Because of the many injuries, Coach Haas said, "The line will remain a scramble until the opening kickoff Saturday." First string guard Frank Tenme and tackle Jim Hess are now doubtful starters. Wayne Yoh, 175, may draw his first starting assignment to replace Tenme while Clem Valko, who has proven his ability in recent games, is likely to replace Hess. Although the rest of the line is suffering from various minor ailments, they are expected to be able to go at full speed.

In the backfield only Dick Davidyok, fullback, and Dick Stravolo, quarterback, are set for their regular positions. Jim Flood and George Greiner, halfbacks, are both questionable starters. Listed to replace Flood and Greiner are a pair of capable sophomores, Ernie Veltan and Ron Tukloff.

Bullets Need Win

A victory is mandatory for Gettysburg if it is to remain in the race for the championship of the University Division of the Middle Atlantic Conference. Muhlenberg is ineligible for the title inasmuch as it plays but three games.

The game will mark the 38th between the schools with the

NEW YORK (AP) — The proposed unrestricted draft of minor league baseball players was seen today as a financial boon to minor league clubs and a curtailment of large bonus payments.

Unrestricted draft by the major leagues was recommended Wednesday by a nine-man committee appointed last month by Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick. Under the present rule the majors may draft only players who have had four years' experience.

The committee, headed by Frank Lane of Cleveland, figured that a major league club will think twice before it pays a big sum for an untried youngster, who could be drafted from the minors by another big league club the following year.

Develop, Then Sell

"Curtalement of payment of a large number of bonuses to untried players will provide major league clubs with an opportunity to funnel into the minor leagues additional financial aid," said Sam Smith, president of the Alabama-Florida League who represented circuits of Class B, C and D on the committee.

Another committee member said the unrestricted draft will give minor league clubs an opportunity to develop their own young players and then sell them to the major leagues since the big boys won't be so ready to pay large bonuses.

The proposed legislation will be submitted to the majors at their December meeting in Washington, D.C.

CLEMSON IS UPSET 26-6 BY S. CAROLINA

By JACK CLARY

Associated Press Sports Writer

The handwriting is on the wall for those college football hot shots who think it may be an easy weekend.

Previously undefeated and 10th-ranked Clemson lost 26-6 to South Carolina Thursday in their annual State Fair Game. Clemson also lost the Atlantic Coast Conference lead to Wake Forest, which has a 2-0 conference record and meets North Carolina Saturday. Clemson is 3-1 in the ACC.

The big game Saturday is at Pittsburgh, where unbeaten and top-ranked Army meets Pitt in a game regionally televised in the East. Pitt is a seven-point underdog but faces an Army squad which is minus starting fullback Harry Walters and whose star halfback Pete Dawkins is badly limited by a severe charley horse.

Trophy In Balance

The Lambert Trophy, which goes to the Eastern champion, hangs in the balance.

In the Big Ten, second-ranked Ohio State, undefeated in four games, meets once-beaten Wisconsin, while undefeated Northwestern (No. 8) plays ninth-ranked Iowa (3-0-1). A victory for Northwestern and a loss by Ohio State would give the Wildcats a commanding 3-0 conference record.

The Southwest has its key game when fourth-ranked Texas travels to Rice. Rice is 2-0 in the conference, tied with idle Texas Christian (No. 16) while Texas is undefeated in five games and 1-0 in conference play.

4 TEXAS COLTS ARE ENTERED IN RICH RACE

By JOHN CHANDLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP) — Texas has invaded New Jersey. Four colts owned by Texans are shooting for the Garden State Stakes Saturday at Garden State Park.

The mile and one-sixteenth gallop is the world's richest horse race. As it shapes up now, the race will have a gross value of $297,250.

Thirteen were listed as probable starters in the sixth running of the race which will decide the champion 2-year-old of 1958. It also will point up a big horse for the 1959 Kentucky Derby and other 3-year-old classics.

The most likely Texas colt to succeed is Tommy Lee, owned by Fred Turner Jr., Midland oilman. Tommy was bred in England, owned in Texas and won 6 for 6 in California before finishing second in the $154,000 Champaign Stakes at Belmont Park two weeks ago. Tommy Lee is the 3-1 second choice. Christopher T. Cheney's First Landling, the Champaign winner, is the 7-5 favorite.

Will Televise Race

Ralph Lowe, also of Midland, has Sherry Prince, the King Ranch of Robert J. Kleberg, Kingsville, Tex., has Black Hills, while Lawrence Pollock and Ronald Bond of Dallas have Winsome Winner.

First Landling's owner has a farm at Doswell, Va., and two other owners with farms in the Old Dominion will run Texas a close second in the entries. Restless Wind is owned by Liz Whitney Lunn of the Llangollen Farm, Upperville. Sword Dancer represents the Brookmeade Stable of Mrs. Isabel Dodge Sloane, Upperville.

Other in the race, to be televised (CBS) from 3:30-4 p.m. EST, are:

Intentionally, Brookfield Farms, Harry Isaacs, Stevenson, Md.; Craft Skipper, The Charfran Stable, Charles Cohen, Miami Beach; Rico Tesio, the Briardale Farm, Anthony Imbessi, Millville, N. J.; Namon, T. A. Grissom, Detroit; Carolina Joy, Cary C. Boshamer, Clover, S. C., and Moon Age, Leo Edwards, Miami Beach.

BERMUDIAN JT. HIGH COPS 5TH STRAIGHT 14-0

Bermudian Joint Junior High School's unbeaten football team won its fifth successive game Thursday afternoon by defeating hitherto unbeaten and unscored upon Spring Grove 14-0 on the latter's field before a large crowd.

The losers had previously won three games via shutouts.

After Spring Grove was halted early in the game following a 56-yard drive to the Bermudian 23-yard line, Bermudian chalked up its first score in the second period.

An end-around play, Craig Hoke to Fred Myers, was good for 35 yards and the score. Barry Schrade smashed the line for the extra point to make the half time score 7-0.

Late in the final period the Rockets drove to the Bermudian 18 and then took to the air. Hoke intercepted an aerial and streaked 86 yards for the six pointer with only 30 seconds of play remaining. Don Shellhamer added the point on a line thrust.

Spring Grove had an 11-4 edge in first downs.

Bermudian goes after its sixth straight next Thursday when Northern Joint of Dillsburg plays at York Springs at 3:30.

Black Hawks Drop Into Third Position

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The honeymoon apparently is over for the Chicago Black Hawks.

After winning three and tying one of their first four games in the National Hockey League, the Hawks now have lost their last three and are in third place following a 9-1 humiliating setback Thursday night at the hands of the pace setting Montreal Canadiens.

The Hawks could have moved into a tie for first with a victory but instead they fell back a notch as the Detroit Red Wings downed the Boston Bruins 3-1 in the league's only other game.

Chicago was in contention only for one period in their game with the defending champion, Tod Sloan's goal gave them a 1-1 tie after 20 minutes of play. Then they faded rapidly as the powerful Canadiens swept through the Hawks' defense for three goals in the second period and five in the finale. Four of the last period goals came in three minutes and nine seconds of play.

Results Uncertain

"What our action will be regarding Conley's flouting of a section of his baseball contract will not be determined until (president) Joe Cairnes, (executive vice president) Birdie Tebbets and I have had a chance to sit down and trash it out."

"To my knowledge," Quinn added, "there has never been a similar case to set a precedent."

Quinn said the standard one-year baseball contract signed by the big right-hander provides:

"The player agrees . . . he will not engage in any game or exhibition of football, basketball, hockey or other athletic sport."

Dick Colman, in his second season as Princeton's football coach, is only the fourth non-graduate to handle the Tigers. Fritz Crisler was the first.

LANCASTER'S ROSES WON A TITLE BUT LOST

By GEORGE KIRCHNER

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — Did you ever hear of a team winning an important baseball championship and winding up losing a working agreement? Happened right here in Lancaster this past year.

Lancaster returned to organized baseball with a franchise in the Class A Eastern League, and a working agreement with the Detroit Tigers. The American League club provided sufficient talent to give the locals a winning club. But when the Lancaster board of directors balanced the books at the end of the season it found the team $14,000 in the red.

Managed by Johnny Pesky, one-time Boston and Detroit shortstop, Lancaster finished a half-game ahead of Reading for the pennant, losing to Binghamton in the final five-game playoff series.

Screwed Season

It was strictly a screwy season with league President Tommy Richardson splitting the loop into north and south divisions, and then, at a late date, dividing the race into halves.

York won the first half of the southern group. Lancaster won the second half and eliminated York in three games in the semifinal series. Reading, which finished second in the southern group in both halves, and actually was only a half-game behind Lancaster for the over-all pennant, never got into the playoffs.

On the other hand, Binghamton, which finished sixth in the overall picture, won both the semifinals and finals to become playoff champion. The Triplets got their chance because they won the northern division's first half title and eliminated Williamsport in the first playoffs.

Customers Confused

The whole setup had the home customers confused, but no more so than the final report of the board of directors. In giving out the attendance figures at the games they announced them at the park, too—the Lancaster directors said they were official. The total showed over 80,000 for the 66 regular games and the four playoff games. On the night of the board meeting, business manager Dan Templeton announced a figure of a little over 69,000.

In addition to suffering financial losses they had to borrow $6,000 from 4 of the 12 directors who operated the club on a community basis and as a non-profit organization — Lancaster also list its working agreement with Detroit.

The Tigers preferred Knoxville, Tenn., in the Class A Sally League, saying Knoxville is closer to their Class B team at Durham.

But Bernard J. Myers a local lawyer who served as president, told the fans here that if they could clear up their $14,000 deficit, he would guarantee that Lancaster would be back in the Eastern League next season. He talked of a working agreement, mentioning the Chicago Cubs as a possibility.

CELTICS SIGN GENE CONLEY; BRAVES IRKED

BOSTON (AP) — Milwaukee Braves' pitcher Gene Conley has signed to toss a basketball for the Boston Celtics, but he also threw the fat in the fire with the baseball club.

The 6-foot-8 Conley, who played briefly with the Celtics during the 1952-53 season, signed his contract with the National Basketball Assn. club Thursday for an undisclosed amount.

In Milwaukee, where Conley had a disappointing 1958 season, Braves General Manager John Quinn said:

"What our action will be regarding Conley's flouting of a section of his baseball contract will not be determined until (president) Joe Cairnes, (executive vice president) Birdie Tebbets and I have had a chance to sit down and trash it out."

"To my knowledge," Quinn added, "there has never been a similar case to set a precedent."

WHITEHURST AND LISTON FIGHT TONIGHT

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Charles Liston, loser only once in 20 pro fights, takes on tough Bert Whitehurst tonight in his pursuit of a match with heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson.

Liston, rated ninth among the contenders for the title, is heavily favored to score a repeat victory over Whitehurst in the 10-round nationally televised (NBC-TV, 9 p.m. EST) bout.

Whitehurst went the 10-round distance in losing a decision to Liston here last spring. George Gainford, manager of the Baltimore underdog, predicts he will do it again.

Changed Managers

Since that bout Liston has moved from St. Louis to Philadelphia, changed managers, and developed a potent right to go with a left jab that served as his chief weapon in earlier fights.

Retired heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano has said Liston is ready for a championship match with Patterson right now.

His record under manager Pep Barrone and Trainer Jimmy Wilson is impressive. He knocked out Julio Mederos in two rounds and Wayne Bethea in 69 seconds in bouts at Chicago Stadium. At Miami Beach he knocked out Frankie Daniels in the first round. Twelve of his victories have been by knockouts.

Whitehurst has defeated such fighters as Bob Satterfield and Sid Peaks in compiling a 24-14-4 mark.

'The Barbarian And Geisha' To Play Here

John Huston's "The Barbarian and the Geisha," starring John Wayne as Townsend Harris, first U. S. consul to Japan, will open next Wednesday at the Majestic Theater here and will run through Saturday, November 1.

Produced for Twentieth Century-Fox by Eugene Frenke on location in Japan in CinemaScope and DeLuxe Color, this eagerly-awaited film introduces in her screen debut a captivating Japanese actress, Eiko Ando, and also stars Sam Jaffe and the celebrated Japanese star, So Yamamura.

As dramatized in Charles Grayson's screenplay, "The Barbarian and the Geisha" unfolds a sweeping adventure story set against the authentic Oriental splendor of the East. It tells of Townsend Harris and his arrival in Japan in the mid-19th century to negotiate a treaty to open Japanese ports to foreign ships and introduce Japan to foreign ideas.

Dramatically, it shows how one man, without force, using only his courage, determination and understanding, changes an entire nation's view toward the rest of the world.

The title role of the treaty-seeking Harris is a radical departure for John Wayne. In it he trades his familiar cowboy stetson or cap of one of the fighting services for the more conservative attire of a diplomat. This sudden switch in roles recalls a similar one in which the same director, John Huston, persuaded Humphrey Bogart to depart from his familiar gangster characterizations to assume the subsequent Oscar-winning role in "The African Queen."

Equally important to the telling of this magnificent story is the role played by Eiko Ando. She is first introduced as a geisha in the Harris household, sent there to spy on him. But slowly, she becomes acquainted with his gentle manner and character, so unlike the "barbarian" she was told to expect, and ultimately falls in love with him. However, just as her obedience to Japanese custom dooms this romance from the outset, it is this same custom to obey which later causes her an emotional conflict when reactionary forces in the government order her to kill Harris, leading to a suspense-filled climax.

GRAND BE THERE! OPENING

Is Furman For Lawrence-Leader?

Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman, who wanted to be the Democratic nominee for Governor of Pennsylvania this year but who was soundly beaten by the Lawrence-Leader machine, made a political speech in Gettysburg High School in which he said:

"Go with me and help put a Democratic administration in Harrisburg for the next four years."

Did Furman Mean That?—NO!

Read what Lt. Gov. Furman said about Lawrence and Leader when he was fighting against the Lawrence-Leader machine for the Democratic nomination:

"I am convinced that if Mayor Lawrence, by some dreadful mischance, is elected Governor, the outrageous hand of bossism will take over and the Matt McCloskeys of the party will converge on the Capitol like a swarm of locusts.

"There is no question in my mind — and the minds of thousands of Democrats — that if Boss Lawrence and the McCloskey type of politicians are permitted to seize control of state government, the calamity and ruin they brought upon the Democratic party 20 years ago will be tragically re-enacted.

"Lawrence double-crossed the people of Pittsburgh by pledging, with hand on heart, that he would never permit a city wage tax. Yet, three weeks after he was elected to another term in 1954, he put the hammer on his all-Democratic council and ungraciously saddled Pittsburghers with that very tax.

"Obviously Mayor Lawrence's political promises are as useless as a free pass to the moon. His counterfeit smile scarcely conceals from those who know him best that he is a flinty man with hard attitudes toward lesser men.

"Should the unlikely happen and Lawrence become Governor, the classified income tax introduced by Governor Leader and so intensely supported by the Pittsburgh Mayor will certainly become a reality in Pennsylvania.

"If elected, David L. Lawrence will make Matt McCloskey a clearing house for all state contracts on engineering, construction, liquor, architects and insurance.

"That is the way it worked 20 years ago when McCloskey and Lawrence were kingpins of another Democratic administration and that is the way it has worked all through the Leader administration.

"McCloskey is putting the financial hammer on liquor companies and agencies doing business with the state to help underwrite the Lawrence-Leader-Blatt slate.

"Engineers and architects are being told to kiddy in 'or else.' Big construction firms — bonding and insurance companies — are coming up with donations. McCloskey's hard-headed 'bag men' are working each county and forcing state employees to come across in the name of 'good government.'

"I ask Mr. Lawrence: Is this what you mean when you say you will continue to carry out the policies of the Leader administration?"

Furman Knows Mr. Lawrence

He is really opposed to him for Governor

Insurance Is 'Defense' For Businessmen

There's a mythical bandit with a real triple threat — Dishonesty, Disappearance and Destruction — who continually stalks American business.

With any one of his trio of weapons, to which everyone from the gas station operator to the mill owner is vulnerable, this marauder can plunder almost at will the money and securities of most any business.

"Against the threat of these hazards, which can often result in irreparable damage, businessmen can erect a strong fortification through the protection offered by a comprehensive, broad coverage insurance policy designed specially to minimize the effect of this particular type of loss," Harry D. ATTENTION Teen Agers!

You teen agers have many problems! Sure, they are hard to solve, but with the right kind of help, you can find the right answer.

Have you ever discovered that God can satisfy your longings? In His Church, you work and play with other teen agers, sharing with them the experience of worship through music, Bible study, and prayer. Here you discover that others have passed through similar experiences, solved similar problems.

In the Church are adults who remember their own teen age tangles, and have come to realize that human beings are more or less alike, regardless of age. Here are leaders who can help and who really understand! The Church offers you teen agers an opportunity to be yourselves at your very best, to exercise all your powers, to make life as wonderful as your rosiest dreams.

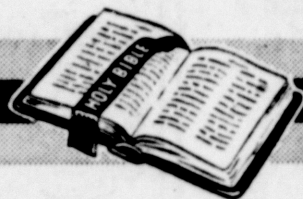

How about it teen agers? Don't you want to give the Church a chance?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

TEMPTATION IN THE WILDERNESS

Key Verse: Because he himself has suffered and been tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted. Hebrews 2:18.

After the confirmation of Jesus' sonship at the time of His baptism came the time for testing. This would be most severe because His whole mission would be determined by the manner in which He withstood temptation. No doubt the responsibility He knew would be His bore heavily on His heart. However, He knew the nature of the tempter and realized that He must do the will of His Father - "Not what I will, but what thou wilt."

The period of 40 days and forty nights in complete solitude were a struggle so intense that we cannot visualize it. Jesus was tempted but was without sin, and temptations kept reoccurring all during His ministry. This makes it possible for Him to understand our ordeals and struggles also. Occasionally Eastern spiritual leaders will fast in solitude but this would never suit the Western mind.

"Tempted By The Devil"

Jesus was led into the Judean wilderness by the Spirit to be tempted by the devil. The traditional location is a rocky hill above the city of Jericho. There is a monastery standing on the supposed site. Matthew and Luke give practically the same story with the exception of the order of the three temptations. The order given in Matthew is followed in this lesson.

When a person is tired, hungry, and spiritually disturbed, the first subtle approach of the tempter was characteristic. He saw Jesus after His fast of 40 days and nights, and said, "If you are the son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread." But Jesus drew on His great knowledge of the Old Testament, answering, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God.'"

Satan or the devil is an enemy of God and seeks to undo His good works. He is crafty and clever and many are led into paths of sin due to his subtle, baffling ways. As individuals we must all be aware of temptations to be met all through life - in the home, in business, in community life. God is always there, however, to make us courageous and decisive.

The second temptation is at a different place - the temple at Jerusalem. There the devil set Jesus on the pinnacle of the temple and told Him to throw Himself down as God's angels would bear Him up. This sounds like a clever publicity stunt to announce His coming. But Jesus never wavered and said, "Again it is written, 'You shall not tempt the Lord your God.' We don't demand that God do this or that - we follow and obey."

The third temptation was again from a high mountain where Satan showed Jesus all the kingdoms of the world. Jesus' role? To fall down and worship the devil. Jesus' reaction was fierce and strong as He said, "Begone Satan! for it is written, 'You shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only shall you serve.' Many men of faith have endured great struggles such as St. Augustine, John Huss, Martin Luther, Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty.

CLAIMS BOYS STOLE HIS CAR

NEW CASTLE, Pa. (AP)—Two teen- aged youths from Waynesboro are in custody after a minister accused them of forcing their way into his auto and then stealing the car.

State police Cpl. William O'Brien said the youths denied forcing their way into the auto Wednesday and told a story that conflicted with one told by the minister.

O'Brien said that on recommendation of Dist. Atty. Joseph Solomon a charge of armed robbery was filed against Clyde Kauffman, 18. The other youth, Earl D. Brunner Jr., 16, was turned over to juvenile authorities.

The minister, the Rev. Roy Arblaster of Slippery Rock R. 3, told police the youths forced their way into his auto and pulled a knife on him when they made him drive some distance and forced him from the auto.

The youths told police they were hitchhiking and the minister picked them up.

Kauffman and Brunner were taken into custody at the George Junior Republic School for boys where they went to visit. Police said Kauffman was a former resident of the school.

The abandoned auto was found in Grove City, police said.

Chiang Renounces Force In Re-winning Chinese Mainland

By SPENCER MOOSA
TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—President Chiang Kai-shek Thursday renounced the use of force as the principal means of returning to the Communist-held Chinese mainland.

In a joint communique ending three days of talks with Secretary of State Dulles, Chiang said a return to the mainland is still his sacred mission but "the foundation of this mission resides in the minds and the hearts of the Chinese people."

The principal means of successfully achieving that mission is through nationalism, democracy and social well-being, "and not the use of force," the communique said.

Nearer U.S. Commitment
The communique also went a step closer toward an American commitment to defend the Nationalist-held offshore islands, although it did not make such a flat commitment.

The statement said that the United States and the Nationalist regime "recognized that under present conditions the defense of the Quemoy together with the Matsus is closely related to the defense of Taiwan (Formosa) and Penghu (the Pescadore Islands) in the Formosa Strait."

This was interpreted as a new warning that any Red attempt to take the offshore islands might provoke U.S. intervention.

Leaves For Washington
Dulles left by KC135 jet tanker for Washington after he and Chiang drew up the communique in their fifth meeting since Tuesday.

The communique said the renewed Communist bombardment of the Quemoy group and the Red propaganda campaign to divide the United States and Nationalist China had instead drawn the two allies closer together.

The Chinese Communists and their Soviet backers "cannot possibly succeed" in trying to conquer Formosa, eliminate Nationalist China and expel the United States from the western Pacific, the communique declared.

Hope No General War
"It is hoped and believed that the Communists, faced by the proven unity, resolution and strength of the U.S. and Nationalist governments, will not put their policy to the test of general war and that they will abandon the military steps they have already taken to initiate their futile and dangerous policy," it said.

Both governments noted that the U.S.-Nationalist military aid treaty "is defensive in character." However, the Nationalist renunciation of force was interpreted in Taipei as not applying in case the mainland is shaken up by a major revolt against Communist rule. Nationalist leaders have continually insisted that a revolt would come and have stepped up such predictions since Red China recently began to force peasants out of private home life and into communal living.

Extremely Important
American officials considered the statement of extreme importance in reassuring America's allies that Chiang's government is prepared to restrain itself. European and other allies have feared the Nationalists would launch a military attempt to recapture the mainland which would drag the United States into war with Red China and possibly lead to World War III.

The communique reaffirmed U.S. recognition of the Nationalist government as "the authentic spokesman for free China and the hopes and aspirations entertained by the great mass of the Chinese people."

In an apparent reference to earlier U.S. desires for withdrawal of part of the 100,000-man garrison on Quemoy, the communique said after the Communists ceased firing, it had been hoped the talks could give primary consideration "to measures which could have contributed to stabilizing an actual situation of nonmilitancy."

Two Are Killed In Separate Mishaps

MORRISVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Two men were killed in separate car accidents on rain-slick Rt. 1 in Falls Township Thursday.

The dead were identified as Thomas B. Toppie, 29, and James Frank, 29, both Fairless Hills.

Toppie was a passenger in a car operated by William A. Rumsey, also 29, of the same address. Rumsey told police he saw an oncoming car veering toward his side of the road. He turned to his right, skidded into a gas station and rammed into a utility pole. Rumsey escaped uninjured. Both men worked in a Trenton, N. J., restaurant.

Frank's car collided with a tractor-trailer driven by Charles Behrman, 38, of Rt. 6, Lancaster. Frank worked as a crane operator at the Fairless Works.

WILL NAME 16 BOOTLEGGERS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—U.S. Atty. Harold K. Wood plans to present the names of 16 known bootleg liquor operators to a Federal Grand Jury for possible indictment.

Wood said Wednesday the 16 names would be turned over to the jury panel next Tuesday when it reconvenes and that another 16 names may also be submitted.

"This is far from the end of our investigation," Wood said. He said a dozen witnesses from Berks County have been subpoenaed to appear on Tuesday. He did not identify them.

The jury, in session for three weeks, is investigating the possibility of a link between a huge still found in Reading, Pa., and bootleg bombardment, Nationalist sources said, Dulles did not raise the question of troop withdrawals.

Bombardment Goes On

Meanwhile, the Communist bombardment of the Quemoy continued with 8,965 shells in the 24 hours ending at 6 a.m. today, the Nationalist Defense Ministry said. It added that the island's defenders hit back.

The Nationalists claimed destruction Wednesday of 15 Red guns, 12 emplacements and an observation post plus hitting a motor pool and setting 48 trucks afire.

Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, visiting U.S. Army chief of staff, said the offshore islands cannot be conquered by Red shelling alone and any invasion attempt "would result in defeat for the Chinese Communists." The islands can be resupplied even under fire, Taylor added.

BUSINESS IS CONTINUING ITS UPTURN

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The business news today still leans strongly to the good side despite some sad nine-months earnings reports. Official statistics are reassuring. Output is rising in some of the basic industries. Prices are firm or rising on industrial materials.

The total of unemployment is shrinking a bit now—and a further drop is expected to be announced as November starts. Most reassuring is the return of confidence to business leaders and to consumers.

Even many of those corporate executives announcing shrinking earnings so far this year are predicting that the final three months should show a nice reversal.

But there's still no sign yet of any runaway boom. Only in the stock market is there enthusiastic counting of chickens before they've hatched.

Show Some Caution
In industrial circles there's more caution due to the belief that the surprising rebound of the economy during July and August probably slowed down a bit in September and October.

A chief worry is what any further rise in interest rates and tightening of the money supply might do to the recovery.

The bond market is already badly shaken and looking hard for buyers. More big corporate issues are reported on the way. Local governments still have borrowing needs unsatisfied.

The U.S. Treasury is coming in to the money market the first half of next month to raise another three billion dollars of new money to meet its needs for cash. It may have to eschew bonds and look to the banks for short-term funds.

May Hike Interest Rate
Speculation on the probability of a further rise in interest rates is growing.

Sign Charter For Newest Cub Pack

The charter for the Black Walnut Boy Scout District's newest unit, a Cub pack at Bonneauville, was signed Wednesday evening at a training session for adults held at St. Joseph's Catholic School, Bonneauville.

Gerald Pfaff signed as chairman of the committee and Richard Rand as Cubmaster. Among committee members who signed was Ivan Bollinger. Listed as den mothers were Irene Pfaff, Louise Noble, Elizabeth Clabaugh and Mary C. Bollinger. The names of eight youngsters of Cub age were submitted for membership.

Plans were made to hold pack meetings the last Wednesday of each month. Instruction at Wednesday night's session for adults was given by Ray Shupe, Hunters-town; Timothy E. Farrell, Gettysburg R. 5 and Stanley C. Rogers, Scout field executive.

housing boom, as purchasers search for mortgage money at rates they can afford.

But in industry itself the news is mostly good.

Output of steel, aluminum and copper has increased. So have their prices, along with lead and zinc.

Durable goods manufacturers are believed to have reduced their inventories of industrial materials down to a level consistent with new orders, which have been reported increasing.

The oil industry, suffering from a surplus of gasoline stocks, expects the demand for fuel oil and diesel oil to offset this.

And the Agriculture Department says that farm cash receipts are running 11 per cent ahead of a year ago.

BOY SAYS HE KILLED BABY

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A 12-year-old boy has told police he killed his 2-year-old girl playmate in a fit of rage after she struck his injured eye.

Olden Goldberg was charged with homicide Wednesday night and taken to the youth study center to await a formal hearing in Juvenile Court today.

Police said marks on Geraldine Williams' body indicated that Olden hit the child, then strangled her. Patrolmen found her body in a yard near her home. It was wrapped in newspaper and stuffed in a wicker shopping basket. She had been missing for two days.

The boy is white; the girl was Negro.

The boy reportedly told police he was playing at his home with Geraldine Monday when she struck his previously injured eye and that brought on the fit of anger.

His mother, at work at the time, had told him not to bring any children to the house.

Glenn Flinchbaugh, pastor of Redeemer's United Church of Christ, Littlestown, officiated. Interment was in Mt. Carmel Cemetery, Littlestown. Serving as pallbearers were six cousins of the deceased: Harvey Bowersox, Paul Bowersox, Alvin Dutterer Jr., Sterling Dutterer, Robert L. Crouse Sr. and Walter F. Crouse.

The dead: Mrs. Imogene Tracy, 32, and her estranged husband, William Anthony Tracy Jr., 35, who only recently had undergone a mental hearing. In a critical condition at Hillcrest Medical Center in Tulsa is the couple's daughter, Lynn Tracy, 3, with a bullet wound in her lung.

The child underwent emergency surgery early today.

The couple's other two children, Roger, 6, and Billy, 8, watched from the back seat of the station wagon as their father opened fire. They were not harmed.

Mrs. Tracy died within minutes from two bullet wounds, one in her chest and the other in her left side. One of the shots also struck the child.

Tulsa County Dep. Sheriff Louis Powell quoted witnesses as saying Tracy then turned the rifle on himself, sending a bullet through his chest.

SAVE BOY, 21, IN 11-FOOT HOLE

MAGNOLIA, Ark. (AP) — A 2-year-old boy was plucked from the bottom of an 11-foot hole Wednesday after rescue workers labored three anxious hours.

Fifty men worked in shifts to scoop out a trench parallel to the hole to reach little Johnny Carmichael.

The child fell into the hole while walking with his father, E. C. Carmichael, about 10 yards behind their rural home. The hole, about 12 inches in diameter, was dug to hold a lightning arrester.

Johnny was unhurt.

Oilfield workers and volunteers hurried to the scene after hearing of the accident. A plastic hood was lowered to cover Johnny from a possible cave-in and oxygen was pumped into the hole.

After rescue workers had removed more than 16 yards of dirt from the six-foot-wide trench, Carmichael and J. W. Henderson reached Johnny. Henderson picked the boy up, wrapped a blanket around him and handed him to Dr. Charles A. Kelley.

Dr. Kelley transferred the boy to the arms of his mother, who had stood by with her daughter and other son.

Johnny himself was indignant, demanding to know "why it took so long to get me out."

News From The Littlestown Area

BRET MOTTER IS NAMED FOR COWBOY ON TV

Bret Maverick Motter, eleven-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis U. Motter Sr., Prince St., Littlestown, has had his picture in a national magazine, because about this time last year when his mother was watching television, she said: "If it's a boy, I'm going to call him Bret Maverick," and she did.

He has had communications, pictures and gifts from his namesake during the last few months, because by chance, the real Bret Maverick happened to see a copy of the unusual birth announcement the Motters had especially designed and which fell into his hands, via a traveling salesman.

Little Bret was born in the Warner Hospital on November 14, 1957, which is also the birth date of Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower, wife of the president of the United States, and Prince Charles of England. He was eight months old when James Garner, TV's Bret Maverick, first heard of him and sent him a picture. A second picture arrived a few weeks later with a request that the parents take pictures of the baby in cowboy outfit similar to the television star. The pictures (three of which appear above) were sent and four of them appeared in the October-November issue of Western magazine with appropriate captions.

The latest gift from television's Bret to Little Bret was a cowboy vest, string tie, gun and T-shirt with "Little Maverick" inscribed, but his parents, especially Dad,

The baby isn't quite old enough to appreciate all of this attention, but his parents, especially Dad,

THIRD ANNUAL FASHION SHOW IS CONDUCTED

The Junior Woman's Club of Littlestown staged its third annual fashion show on Thursday evening in the Littlestown High School auditorium. "Bridal Gowns and Trousseau" was the theme of the presentation.

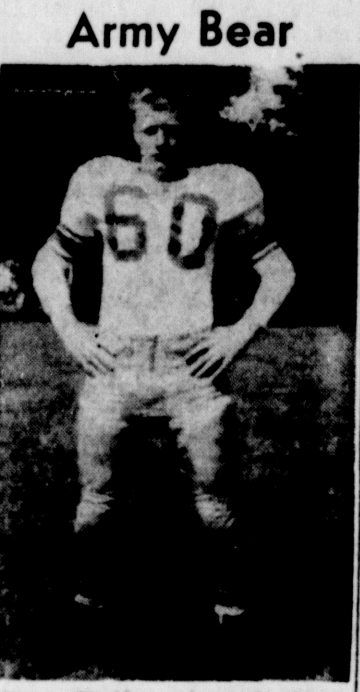

The first part of the show was an imaginary shopping trip with a bride to purchase her trousseau and the fashions modeled were from Wenger's Women's Apparel Store, Hanover. The second portion of the show was the modeling of wedding gowns dating back to 1824.

Mrs. Robert R. Reinaman, president of the Junior Woman's Club, welcomed the audience and introduced Mrs. Carl H. Baumgardner, teacher of English at the local high school, who was narrator. Two separate outfits were modeled by the following members of the club: Mrs. Jay R. Crouse, Mrs. William Grove, Mrs. Francis Gerick, Mrs. Kent E. Daum, Mrs. Wilbur Dutterer and Mrs. Wilbur J. Gobrecht. There were suits, dresses, sportswear, etc. Each model appeared first in a shop window setting.

Model Old Gowns
Each model who wore a wedding gown appeared under a floral trimmed archway in the center of the stage with lighted candelabra. The first gown shown was 134 years old, worn by Miss Mary Hare when she married Jacob Hoffacker on January 21, 1824, handmade by the bride and lined in blue check apron gingham. The gown belongs to Mrs. E. Roy Kindig, great-granddaughter of the bride, and it was modeled by Mrs. Robert Reinaman.

An 1850 gown, which belonged to Mrs. Elizabeth Adell Shaffer, married in Frederick, and is hand-sewn, was modeled by Mrs. Richard E. Barnes; 1894 gown which belonged to Mrs. Peter Keiser, modeled by Mrs. Jay Crouse; 1896 gown belonging to Mrs. Sam Zinn was modeled by sixth grade pupil, Linda Keefer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Keefer, to fit the wasp waist. The hand-sewn wedding dress of Mrs. Joseph R. Riden, E. King St., worn in 1922, was modeled by Mrs. William Grove; Mrs. Horace E. Mann's dress of 1925 was modeled by Mrs. Russ Abbott; Mrs. Naomi C. Schwartz modeled her own wedding gown of 1928, originally a short style of the period, which was converted to a floor length skirt in 1947 for her to wear at her installation at Worthy Matron of Gettysburg chapter.

and the rest of the family are proud as peacocks. It wouldn't be amiss to mention that Mr. and Mrs. Motter are also grandparents.

Tom Gouker, pictured above, stationed with the United States Army in Germany, is now playing football on the first string of the Army Bears squad in Berlin. The 5'11" 180-pounder played with the Army team last year, as a member of the second string, until a leg injury curtailed his activities. Tom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Gouker, Littlestown R. D., entered the Army immediately after graduation from the Littlestown High School in 1956.

Order of the Eastern Star; the flapper style navy georgette dress of 1929 owned by Mrs. Edward F. Hawk, Prince St., was won by Mrs. Richard Geisler. Mrs. Charles W. Weikert modeled the gown of 1934 worn by Mrs. Richard Sanders; Mrs. Russ Abbott modeled the 1938 gown of Mrs. Luther W. Ritter, Glenwyn Drive, which was handmade by the lady who also made Theodore Roosevelt's daughter's gown, Alice Roosevelt Longworth.

8 Of This Decade
Mrs. Wilbur Gobrecht modeled the 1941 gown of Mrs. Glenn Flinchbaugh, Jill Weikert preceded her mother wearing the junior bridesmaid's dress of pink dotted Swiss worn at her mother's wedding and Mrs. Charles Weikert modeled her own gown of 1941; Mrs. Kent Daum modeled the 1943 gown of Mrs. Donald C. Sheely; Mrs. Paul F. Boller Jr. wore the 1946 gown of Mrs. Paul E. Altoff, E. Myrtle St., and also wore the white ivory cross and bracelet from Switzerland worn at the time of the wedding; Mrs. Richard N. Greenholt Jr. modeled the 1949 gown of Mrs. Woodrow D. Crabbs, near town.

Eight gowns of the present decade appeared in the show, some modeled by their owners. Mrs. Robert Reinaman modeled the 1951 gown of Mrs. Richard Barnes; Mrs. Jay Crouse, the 1952 gown of Mrs. Paul Boller Jr., who was married at a double wedding with her sister, Mrs. Willard Spears; Mrs. Richard Geisler wore her own 1953 gown; Miss Patricia Yingling wore the 1954 gown of Mrs. Robert Gordon; Mrs. Francis Gerick modeled her own 1955 gown; Mrs. Richard Barnes wore the 1956 gown of Mrs. Bernard G. Kebel; Mrs. Wilbur Gobrecht modeled her own 1957 gown, and Mrs. Glenn E. Crouse modeled the 1958 gown of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Franklin J. Kress, concluding the show.

COMMUNITY CLUB MEETS WEDNESDAY

Approximately 50 members of the Woman's Community Club of Littlestown and vicinity and their guests attended a "Cooking For Fun" demonstration at the Manufacturers Light and Heat Co., given by Lee Ann Leaphart, home economist.

Four types of food were prepared, an oven meal, novelty doughnuts, a salad and a snack. All of the foods prepared were given to someone in attendance.

Betsy Cameron received the meal; Mrs. Harry O. Harner, the doughnuts; Mrs. Robert J. Eckenrode, the salad, and Malva Dutera, the snack.

Other gifts were received by Mrs. J. Harvey Pettyjohn, Mrs. Richard A. Maitland and Mrs.

ing the show with the traditional tossing of the bridal bouquet.

Prior to the intermission and serving of refreshments, Mrs. Reinaman extended thanks to donors of properties as follows: Lloyd E. Crouse, the picture window frame; Stanley B. Stover, the archway; Haddo Aluminum Products, the outdoor lighting; Wilbur M. Sentz for transportation of fashions; William R. Keefer, electrical director; Herbert J. Sell, who provided background music on an organ provided by Mrs. Walter F. Crouse, and to Mrs. Baumgardner. Gift certificates were awarded to Mrs. George A. Stonieser, near town; Mrs. Leslie Shinhann, Prince St., and Mrs. Noah C. Snyder, N. Queen St.; with Mrs. William Keefer in charge of the presentation. The hostesses for serving refreshments were Mrs. Donald C. Feeser, Mrs. Robert W. Hall, Mrs. Herbert J. Sell and Mrs. Allen Shenebrook.

James W. Fager. Various recipes, including those prepared at the demonstration, cooking information and pamphlets were given to everyone present. Refreshments were provided by the company for the club members and guests.

A business meeting was also held in Gettysburg with the president, Mrs. Robert J. Eckenrode, in charge. Reports were heard from Mrs. Chester S. Byers and Mrs. Sterling J. Wisotzky. Members of the club who will serve as hostesses at the meeting of the Annie M. Warner Hospital Auxiliary on Monday afternoon are Mrs. Leonard L. Potter, Mrs. Marvin F. Breighner, Mrs. Robert H. Miller and Mrs. Edward T. Richardson, Sr.

It was announced that the fall meeting of the Adams County Federation of Women Clubs will be a luncheon at 1 p.m. Wednesday in the Hotel Gettysburg. Approximately $25 was realized from the food and garden sale held in connection with the September meeting. Mrs. Edward T. Richardson, Sr. presented the report of the cheer committee.

Mrs. Leonard L. Potter, chairman of the finance committee, read the proposed budget of about $650, of which about $200 will be for welfare and benevolences. The budget was adopted as presented. The finance committee was also instructed to review the club's bond holdings and reinvest any funds as it sees fit. Mrs. Potter announced that an imaginary food sale is being conducted by the finance committee and that to date $71.50 had been received. Contributions may be given to any member of the committee, Mrs. Potter, Mrs. Walter F. Crouse, Mrs. Edward H. Leister, Mrs. Richard A. Maitland, Mrs. Joseph R. Riden, Mrs. Charles W. Weikert or Mrs. Sterling J. Wisotzky.

Mrs. Luther W. Ritter, chairman of the education committee which is in charge of arrangements for the annual club banquet, said that the banquet will be held at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, November 12, instead of November 26.

Assisting the chairman will be Miss A. Marie Budde, Mrs. Glenn Flinchbaugh, Mrs. J. Harvey Pettyjohn, Mrs. Donald C. Sheely, Mrs. Ralph I. Unger and Mrs. P. Bernard Weaver, from any of whom tickets may be secured. The banquet will be held in the social hall of Redeemer's United Church of Christ.

A contribution of $5 was voted to the Adams County Girl Scout Council fund drive. Guests introduced were Mrs. Wilson Stair, Mrs. Herman Newman, Dawn Pettyjohn and Betsy Camerson. Arrangements for Wednesday's meeting were in charge of the welfare committee, Mrs. John H. Flickinger, chairman, and the legislation and citizenship committee, Mrs. Roy D. Renner, chairman.

Carload Of Shells Blows Up In Canyon
 RIFLE, Colo. (AP)—A freight car filled with deadly eight-inch howitzer shells blew up in Debevoise Canyon several miles west of here Thursday. The explosion was heard for miles.
 A Denver & Rio Grande Western Railroad spokesman said the blast was caused by sparks from a broken journal.
 No one was injured on the 68-car train. Some unexploded shells were scattered along the track, and streamliners were delayed until late afternoon. A four-man demolition team from the Rocky Mountain Arsenal near Denver went to the explosion scene to remove unexploded shells.

Try To Stay In Air Two Months
 LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Two men have begun their second attempt to stay aloft two months in a light plane.
 Robert Timm, 33, a Las Vegas hotel employee, and Charles Kasela, 32, an Anaheim, Calif. aircraft worker, took off Thursday. They want to break the 50-day endurance record for single-engine planes.
 A previous try this month ended after 18 hours because of carburetor trouble.

Insurance Is 'Defense' For Businessmen

The best choice can be determined by consultation with a local insurance agent.

Protects From Losses

"In a nutshell, each coverage plan protects the businessman from losses occurring when an employee embezzles funds, the safe is burglarized, bandits hold up the office, money or securities mysteriously disappear, a messenger is held up and robbed, fire or other disaster destroys money or securities, a company check is forged or altered, securities in your safe deposit box are stolen or destroyed, or bogus money orders or counterfeit currency are accepted in the course of business," Ridinger said.

"Loss of money, securities or other property through dishonest or fraudulent acts committed by your employees is covered, even though it may not always be possible to identify the particular employee responsible for the crime."

"New employees taken on during the year are automatically covered without any increase in premium payment. If requested, however, insurance companies will conduct checks on new workers as a precaution against the possibility of continuing employees with previous dishonest records."

Give Survey Results

"Within the premises, the policy provides for the payment of direct loss of money and securities. The coverage will also pay for losses to other property, such as merchandise, supplies, furnishings, office or store equipment, caused by an actual or attempted safe burglary or hold-up. Furthermore, damage caused to the premises as a result of forced entry or an attempt to break into the premises is also covered by the policy."

"A recent analysis or approximately 200 money and securities losses from "within the premises" disclosed that only one out of seven involved safe burglary or hold-up, all other losses being the result of mysterious disappearance, destruction, fire, riot, or any one of the many other causes which are included in the coverage," Ridinger explained.

An example of the scope of a broad coverage policy is the fire that leveled a big laundry and charred to ashes the $4,000 which was in the firm's steel safe. The standard fire policy does not cover money, but the laundry recovered the loss of currency through the broad form money and securities coverage.

Cites Instance

Outside the premises, the policy protects against direct loss of money and securities which are being conveyed by a messenger. In addition, payment is provided for damage to property other than money and securities, such as merchandise, caused by an actual or attempted hold-up of a messenger.

Banks and safe deposit companies are responsible for losses of securities from safe deposit boxes only to the extent that they are proved legally liable, but a broad coverage policy provides for the recovery of losses of securities as a result of their destruction, disappearance or wrongful removal from a safe deposit box.

In one instance, suit was brought against a bank after burglars had stolen $12,000 in negotiable securities from a safe deposit box, but a jury and the higher court to which the case was later appealed decided the bank had provided ordinary care and, therefore, was not liable for the depositor's loss. Thus, the box owner was forced to stand the entire $12,000 loss himself.

Forgery has become much more prevalent in the last 15 years and today thousands of innocent victims are mulcted of millions of dollars each year through this particular crime alone. With broad coverage, however, protection is afforded against loss by forgery or alteration of any check, draft, bill of exchange or promissory note drawn or presented as having been drawn by the policyholder or one of his authorized agents.

Automatic Coverage

Not only the policyholder but his bank as well are protected, and in addition the insurance covers court costs and attorneys' fees incurred in defending a suit brought to enforce payment of obligations which are allegedly forged.

Automatic coverage is also provided for new or branch offices opened during the term of the policy. Moreover, the protection against the hazards of forgery may be expanded to include, in addition, the personal accounts of executive officers of a business.

Without insurance, the firm which accepts counterfeit currency or bogus post office express money orders simply must stand the loss. The broad coverage policy pays dollar for dollar for losses incurred in this manner.

With a broad coverage policy, furthermore, all the coverages required to protect a firm's money and securities can be

Admiral Rickover Given Promotion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rear

Adm. Hyman Rickover, pioneer in the atomic submarine field, is getting the promotion his congressional backers have demanded.

The White House announced that Rickover has been upped to vice admiral, subject to Senate approval next year. His new three-star rank is to be effective while Rickover heads the Atomic Energy Commission's naval reactors branch.

Credited with fostering the nation's first nuclear submarine, Rickover has been a center of controversy from time to time during his career. Some of this controversy has stemmed from his reported readiness to brush aside Navy red tape in order to further the nuclear sub program.

wrapped up in one contract having one renewal date, thereby eliminating the possibility of down needless office detail and facilitating prompt adjustment of claims in the event of loss and Ridinger can provide that kind of coverage.
